CORAM: B.H. MARLAPALLE, J.

P.C.:

. The petitions were heard on 27/7/2006 and 28/7/2006 and on 3/8/2006 the parties indicated that they were desirous of settling the dispute regarding eviction as well as monthly rental amount. Accordingly, the parties have, with the assistance of their learned counsel, arrived at a settlement and the terms of the same have been reduced in writing and placed before me as consent terms. The learned counsel, therefore, pray for the petition to be disposed off in terms of the consent terms which have been signed by the parties and/or their Constituted Attorney. Undoubtedly the parties will be bound by the said consent terms. The said consent terms are taken on record and marked as "X" for identification.

. The Writ Petitions are, therefore, partly allowed in terms of the consent terms and the decrees passed by the Lower Appellate Court stands modified accordingly.

. No costs.
